Third Sunday of Great Lent

The Exaltation of the Precious and Life-Giving Cross

The Great Fast of Lent continues until Holy PASCHA (Easter),
Sunday, April 20, with the Paschal Divine Liturgy.

During Lent we are called to abstain from meat and dairy products and from spiritually unproductive entertainment... so that we control our appetites, and our appetites do not control us!

“Fasting is acceptable to God when abstaining from food is accompanied by refraining from sins, from envy, from hatred, from slander, from vainglory, from talkativeness, and from other evils.” – St. Photios the Great

SCRIPTURE READINGS

EPISTLE Hebrews 4:14-5:6 Brethren: Having a great High Priest Who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast to the confession. For we do not have a High Priest Who cannot have compassion on our infirmities, but one tempted in all things like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; who can have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also beset by weakness. Because of this he is required, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man takes this honor unto himself, but he that is called by God, as was Aaron. So Christ also did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but He that said unto Him: “Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten Thee.” As He said also in another place: “Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

GOSPEL Mark 8:34-9:1 At that time, when Jesus had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, “Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel’s will save it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.” And He said to them, “Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see the kingdom of God present with power.”

"Be Who You Are in the Body of Christ"

Keynote Speaker: Mother Melania

Mother Melania is the abbess of the community of Holy Assumption Monastery in Calistoga, California.

She has written several series of children's books (including The Twelve Great Feasts for Children; The Three-Day Pascha; the Old Testament Stories for Children series; and the Good Neighbors series – a series of animal fables designed to teach children Christian virtue in an engaging way).

Mother Melania has made a particular study of St. John Chrysostom's writings. Because he was writing not primarily to monks but to people living in the world, he has much practical advice to offer for today's Christian.

Also visiting: Archbishop Michael
