Welcome to all our visitors and guests who participate in the Divine Liturgy today. We are glad you are here. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the cross and receiving blessed bread at the conclusion of the service. We also hope you will join us for the Fellowship Hour.

Today the Church remembers the 350 holy Fathers of the Seventh Ecumenical Council under the holy Patriarch Tarasius.

The Synod of 787, the second to meet at Nicea, refuted the Iconoclast heresy during the reign of Empress Irene and her son Constantine VI.

The Council decreed that the veneration of icons was not idolatry (Exodus 20:4-5), because the honor shown to them is not directed to the wood or paint, but passes to the prototype (the person depicted). It also upheld the possibility of depicting Christ, Who became man and took flesh at His Incarnation. The Father, on the other hand, cannot be represented in His eternal nature, because “no man has seen God at any time” (John 1:18).

Demetrius Saturday Memorial: In commemoration of Demetrius Saturday a General Panikhida will be served this Friday, October 18th at 6:00pm and the Memorial Divine Liturgy on Saturday, October 19th at 9am. All names that have been previously submitted will be remembered. If you have any updates, please give those to Subdeacon Shawn Michael for inclusion
