Welcome to all our visitors and guests who participate in the Divine Liturgy today. We are glad you are here. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the cross and receiving blessed bread at the conclusion of the service. We also hope you will join us for the Fellowship Hour.

Welcome back Fr. John Hutnyan - We welcome Father John back to Holy Trinity again today. As you might recall Father John comes from Buffalo and was with us in June. We thank Father for celebrating the Divine Liturgy this morning and wish him Many Blessed Years!

Archpriest David Scott Cowan assigned to Holy Trinity Parish: As announced last Sunday, Archpriest David Cowan will begin on November 15th as the next Priest of our beloved parish of the Holy Trinity.

We look forward to welcoming Fr. David, Matushka Tamara and their son, Gabriel on November 15th. Fr. David will serve his first Vespers and Divine Liturgy on the weekend of November 16th and 17th. All of the Faithful are invited to join in a time of Fellowship following the Liturgy to greet the Cowans. Our Fellowship Hour that day will be a Lenten (Advent) dish to pass.

Please continue to pray for our new Pastor, his family and our Parish as we prepare for their arrival.

+Memory Eternal: Immediately following the Divine Liturgy today we will celebrate an annual Memorial service for Alexander Melnik and Sean Alexander Powers.

Cemetery Decorations - As the cooler weather sets in please remember to remove your floral displays from the Cemetery for the Winter. There will be no further maintenance until Spring.

Diocesan Assembly to Meet this week: The 2019 Diocesan Assembly of New York and New Jersey will meet this week on Thursday and Friday in East Meadow, NY on Long Island. Our parish is being represented by Archpriest Alexey Karlgut as Dean.
