Welcome to all our visitors and guests who participate in our service today. We are glad you are here. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the cross and receiving blessed bread at the conclusion of the service. We also hope you will join us for the Fellowship Hour.

Today we welcome Father Deacon Sean McNulty to Holy Trinity for the celebration of the Pro-Liturgy (Obednitsa).

Father Deacon Sean is attached to St. John the Baptist Church in Rochester, NY. Welcome Father Deacon!

The service today is a form of Pre-Sanctified Liturgy held by a deacon and authorized by the local bishop when a priest is unavailable. The deacon distributes communion to the faithful present at the service. It should be noted that this service is not of ancient origin. However, the idea of deacons bringing communion to those unable to attend the Liturgy is an ancient custom, and so it can be argued that the ancient custom provides the basis for this more recent practice.

We will return to our usual weekend schedule next Saturday and Sunday and extend our thankfulness to Father Deacon Sean for being with us today!

+ Memory Eternal, Michael Wysowski: We learned of the passing of former parishioner Mike Wysowski this past Tuesday at the age of 99. As many recall, Mike was actively involved in the construction of our current Temple in the mid 1980s. There will be no calling hours. Private services will take place at the convenience of the family.

STEWARDSHIP REMINDER- Now that we are in the final three months of our fiscal year, we ask that all of our parishioners review their stewardship contributions to the church and if they have fallen behind, please take this opportunity to catch up. May God Bless your generosity and cheerful giving!
