Welcome to all our visitors and guests who participate in our celebration of the Divine Liturgy today. We are glad you are here. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the cross and receiving blessed bread at the conclusion of the Liturgy. We also hope you will join us for the Fellowship Hour.

CHRIST IS RISEN !!! INDEED HE IS RISEN!!!

The joy of Pascha continues until the Feast of Ascension (June 6th) and for that reason today is also known as "Antipascha." This does not mean "opposed to Pascha," but "in place of Pascha." Beginning with this first Sunday after Pascha, the Church dedicates every Sunday of the year to the Lord's Resurrection. We pray that all continue to greet each other and celebrate the radiant joy of the Resurrection! Christ is Risen!

The Parish Council will meet on Monday, May 13th at 6:00pm.
All members are asked to be present.

The Annual Blessing of Graves is postponed due to inclement weather for today. We will reschedule the Memorial Service and Blessing for better weather later this month or in June.
