IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE DEAN OF NEW YORK STATE DEANERY ARCHPRIEST ALEXEY KARLGUT

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Glory to Jesus Christ!

This official notice is to inform you that during this week a meeting was convened by His Eminence Archbishop Michael with Fr. James Worthington, at the Diocesan Chancery. During extensive and prayerful deliberations, His Eminence made a decision with Fr. James, that effective immediately, Fr. James is officially relieved of his duties as Acting Rector of Holy Trinity Church in Elmira Heights.

The canonical process of returning Fr. James to status of layman will take place in keeping with established ecclesiastical procedures. Concurrently, His Eminence appointed Very Rev. Archpriest Timothy Holowatch Temporary Priest-in-Charge of Holy Trinity parish, while the process of search for a new Parish Priest is undertaken by Archbishop Michael.

We ask for your continued prayers for Fr. James, Fr. Timothy, Fr. Nikolay and myself, as we will go together through this time of transition in our beloved parish. Assuring you of my prayers and love, I remain yours in Christ,

Archpriest Alexey Karlgut

Today we commemorate All Saints of Britain and Ireland

On August 21, 2007, the Holy Synod of the Russian Church officially approved the veneration of all the saints who shone forth in the lands of Britain and Ireland, blessing the annual celebration of their memory on the third Sunday after Pentecost. This feast is in honor of all the saints who lived in England, Ireland, Wales and Scotland until 1054, when most of Western Europe tragically broke away from the One Church. The Church in the British Isles and Ireland in the first millennium was an integral part of One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. Throughout the history of Orthodoxy these lands produced no fewer than 950 saints whose names and feast-days are known to us. The majority of them are venerated locally or in some particular regions; the veneration of several dozen of them is nationwide; a large number of them were widely known outside this country. These holy people were poor and rich, simple and educated, scholars and theologians, martyrs and anchorites, abbots and abbesses, priests and bishops, kings and queens, seafarers and preachers, nuns and virgins and laymen. The Saints of Britain and Ireland were not always British or Irish by origin—many came from other countries, and vice versa—numerous missionaries, enlighteners, left the British Isles and moved to other European lands to preach and found monasteries.

Happy Father's Day: Today the civil calendar marks Father's Day and we wish all of our Fathers, Grandfathers, Godfathers and men of good example Many Blessed Years!

To those who have fallen asleep, we pray that Our Lord will grant rest in Eternal repose and make their Memory to be Eternal! + Memory Eternal. +Vechnya Pamyat

APOSTLES FAST: The Apostles Fast continues until the feast of Ss Peter & Paul on June 29th. It is the teaching of the Orthodox Church to maintain a Lenten diet while preparing for this feast. The Fast is thought to have been instituted out of thanksgiving to God for the witness of the apostles of Christ. With this Fast, believers express their thanks for the apostles' endurance of persecution during their mission.
